

Darryl Doland Arranging Special Meetings for Offenders

Dear WA, N ID & AK friends and workers,

I am sending you the new workers list for our region, along with the speaking lists for Milltown & Olympia conventions. The call-in numbers for these conventions will be Milltown 720-(Redacted); Olympia 857-(Redacted).

After our conventions, there is a plan to move forward with a few volunteer meetings which offenders and alleged offenders may be eligible to attend and participate in.

Following are some of the practical elements of a volunteer meeting:

- No children or adults who fit the alleged offender's victim profile may attend.
- All attendees will be informed of the type of allegations against the offender or alleged offender.
- It is strongly recommended for all attendees to get their MinistrySafe certification.

- Offenders or alleged offenders will be required to adhere to a safety plan developed in collaboration with the Safety Team. This safety plan will include appropriate boundaries, consequences for violations, and therapy recommendations.
- If you are interested in participating in a volunteer meeting, please inform the workers in your field and/or the safety team.

The spiritual elements of a volunteer meeting will be the same as what we enjoy and expect in the rest of our meetings. If a volunteer meeting isn't a practical option in some areas, offenders and alleged offenders may be able to call in to another volunteer meeting. If you have any questions or concerns about volunteer meetings, please contact the safety team at wanidaksafety@gmail.com.

In 2 Kings 6:15-17, Elisha's servant went outside and saw a hostile army was surrounding the city, with horses & chariots. He feared it was an impossible situation. Elisha prayed the Lord would open the servant's eyes, and then the servant saw a hill full of horses & chariots of fire surrounding Elisha. When our natural perspective causes us to fear, the Lord wants to open our eyes to see how much help is on our side and the victory that is assured through Him.

Thanks for your prayers and faithfulness.

With appreciation & care,

Darryl
